

Sound Investment

DANCE MUSIC YOU CAN BANK ON!!

BAND BIO

Meet The Band: Dancing. Laughing. Singing. Clapping. Toe-tapping. Reminiscing. Flirting. Celebrating.....That is how the audience responds when Sound Investment takes the stage. Our goal as a band is simple: To play great music that sets the course for a memorable evening.

Whether it's singing along to Old Time Rock'n'Roll, swaying to At Last, shaking it to Twist & Shout, or even line dancing to I Feel Lucky, our audience feels as much as part of the entertainment as the band itself.

Genre: Motown-Pop-Rock-Soul-Country.....Music you know & love to dance to!

Paula Richardson - Vocals/Keys/Percussion/Harp: Having studied music at the University of Maryland and with widespread experience performing with various bands both in the San Francisco Bay Area and the Central Coast, Paula brings her vocal talents to Sound Investment. Her lead singing and knack for harmonizing anytime, anywhere are part of what make up the core of Sound Investment's vocals. Paula also adds keyboard and solid percussion to the mix.

Ron Labrie - Vocals/Keys: Ron's from Fairhaven Massachusetts, studied classical piano for 11 years setting a solid foundation for his ongoing musical career. He was an original founder of the popular City Lights Band in the 80's before coming to California in 1988, where he became musical director at a church in Morro Bay for the next 31 1/2 years. In addition to other projects along the way, Ron is thrilled to bring his keyboards and vocals to the stage as a member of the Sound Investment family.

Richard Ramsay - Sax: Richard Ramsay has been on the cutting edge of the Central coast live music scene since moving to California in 1990 from the East Coast. Richard has been featured in various groups throughout the area where he showcases his impressive talents and skills as a lead Saxophonist. He will capture your attention.

David Gonzales - Vocals/Bass: David loves making music. He was encouraged by his Grandfather and older brother to pursue music. He grew up in a small town in California learning to play in bands with his neighborhood friends. We could go on about all David's experiences but we prefer to live in the moment of creation of his music and let him display his talent. David now brings strong vocals & solid bass lines to Sound Investment.

Randy Berry - Vocal/Guitar: Randy has been mastering his craft for years. He has enjoyed performing throughout California in both the live & studio music scene. Randy now provides the backbone that brings the crowds out to dance to the sights and sounds of Sound Investment.

Rob O'Sullivan - Drums/Percussion: Rob's enthusiasm for drumming started with Big Band Jazz. He has played at various jazz festivals including the Monterey and Greeley Jazz Festivals. Rob has laid down the backbeat with various big band, jazz combos, rock and fusion groups. He now lays down the foundation for the sound that makes Sound Investment a Central Coast favorite.
